

Overview

Upper Mustang Trekking is one of the exciting and wonderful journeys into the high Himalayan land of western Nepal. The Upper Mustang Trekking region is similar to Tibet, where you can see thousand-year-old monastery, ancient culture and trade and the fortified wall that is also quite same as neighbor Tibet. This destination is popular for the ancient Buddhist kingdom of Lo. The region was closed before but it is opened for all now. The famous medieval wall city of Lo- Manthang, it is the private capital of Mustang still remains a Kingdom with full of culture and religious heritage. The Upper Mustang Trekking is known as the mystifying and slight acknowledged destination of Nepal. As Mustang is resting into the high Himalayas of Nepal, the proportion of rain is less than other parts of Nepal. This is the reason behind the sterile moonscape of windswept stonework and irregular terraces.

The Upper Mustang Trekking, which is situated in the shade of Himalayas, is possibly the final commune of faultless Tibetan culture. Despite prohibited and cut off from the world, people of Mustang have progress on their own mores and conventional cultures which seem so exclusive and affluent. As all over the place in the Himalayas, this trekking area has offered brilliant sceneries painted by Annapurna and Dhaulagiri. In additional, trekkers will be enclosed with 35 plus mountains whose altitude is above 6,000 meters. The altitude of Mustang Trekking itself gets higher from 2,815 meters to 3,780 meters. The trekking grade of Upper Mustang Trekking is moderate whose elevated access is Lo- Manthang, exceeding to 3,840 meters, the mode of trekking is camping only. As trekkers will visualize the Himalayan vista of Fishtail, Lamjung Himal, Nilgiri and Hiunchuli with attractive landscapes of Mustang Valley it will take the breath of viewers.

The Upper Mustang Trekking will complete in 17 days including your arrival and departure date. This is a restricted region, we need to take a special trekking permit from the Department of Immigration to enter Upper Mustang. It is located in the rain shadow of Annapurna and Dhaulagiri mountain range, where a little rainfall and the trekking, which your number one choice in the rainy season. This trekking will be led by our well- trained and mountain experience guide. In the Trekking, your safety and satisfied is our major concern.
