

Overview

Nepal is emerging as one of the best adventure holiday destinations these days and Paragliding is creating a lot of buzz among adventurous hearts. People from across the globe are swarming for enjoying the sheer thrill of paragliding in Pokhara. Pokhara has been chosen among the Top 5 commercial tandem paragliding destinations in the world. Paragliding starts from the Sarankot hilltop. Get the unmatched aerial views of the utterly stunning lake city as you glide over the sparkling Phewa, Rupa, and other lakes. Fly along Annapurna and Machhapuchhre mountain giants. Get the bird's eye views of monasteries, forested ridges, temples, and stupas. Skim over Gurung settlements and skim the Rhododendron hues before landing off near Phewa Lake.

Nepal Glacier Treks is organizing the memorable paragliding trip in Pokhara. Even the newbies can try this package as you will shortly be provided with necessary instructions. You will be taught the correct way to wear paragliding gears like helmet and boots. This is a nerve-chilling yet absolutely safe sport. October to December and February to May is the best months for paragliding.
