

Overview

Bhaktapur city, this private day tour we take you back to the ancient cultural and historical heritage sites in Bhaktapur city around 185 BC, the city inhabitant indigenous Newari people, Durbar Square, Dattatreya Temple, Palace of 55 windows, Golden Gate, the Lion Gate and more attraction spots by professional license holder tour guide. It is fit for those visitors that have limited time in Nepal however, want to discover Nepalese lifestyle, culture, tradition and ancient facts. Bhaktapur private day tour will be perfect, who come to Nepal for a few days' trade purposes or weekend. The tour also would be better for those visitors who have few day's unused time after or before their prime holiday: cancel of flight because of bad weather, technical problems and so on.

Bhaktapur is known as "City of Devotees" as well as Bhad Guan. This beautiful medieval city is the most conserved of the three medieval cities of Kathmandu valley. The main attraction of the Bhaktapur Durbar Square is the famous Swarna Dwar or Golden Gate, the Lion Gate, Peacock window, Dattatreya temple, Palace of 55 Windows and other many architectural showpieces. It is a living museum of arts and architecture. Each and every piece of art speaks of the city's history. The landmarks of Bhaktapur are the famous five- storied temple or five-tiered Nyatapola, built in 1702 at Taumadhi Square. The Pagoda Nyatapole, it is the best and tallest example of pagodas. There are many courtyards inside the palace, but they are closed to the public.

This tour also provides you with an ancient history of the medieval kingdom, masterpieces of Nepalese art and architecture and many other exciting places. Nepal Glacier Treks organizes this wonderful tour to offer a glimpse of an ancient culture and history as well as Nepalese arts.

DAY ITINERARY

Day 01: Sightseeing tour at Bhaktapur Durbar Square, including major famous places and ancient old culture and history of Nepal.

Itinerary Details