

Overview

Jomsom Muktinath Trekking is greatly inspiring trekking as it covers the gorge of Kali Gandaki, which has earned its name as the world's deepest gorge. Jomsom Muktinath Trekking is positioned at an altitude of 3,800 meters, so any trekkers who love trekking can accomplish this trek without any trouble. In the first phase of a trek, trekkers have to take a gradual ascend all through the rice field following the trails of flourishing Annapurna Region. There, the trekkers are free to experience the beautiful villages which are still populated by aboriginal people, generally Gurungs. The Jomsom Muktinath is a most famous trekking trip in the Annapurna region. The region has many trekking routes and Jomsom Muktinath trip the best package among the Annapurna trekking.

When people talk about the striking factors of Jomsom Muktinath Trekking they cannot forget to mention Tatopani. Tatopani, the literal meaning of Tatopani indicate "hot water" and here trekkers are offered with an occasion of slowing down the natural spring. Likewise, the passes which lead to Kagbeni and Jomsom are additional magnetic things included in the upper section of Mustang Region Jomsom Muktinath Trekking. The stateliness of the grand Dhaulagiri Glacier is demonstrated through the tiny initial quick look of the breezy Tibetan Plateau which is located on the sanctified Hindu pilgrimage called Muktinath. Geographically, Muktinath is to be found at an altitude of 3,800 meters. Completing the trekking, trekkers will sense that they have got to view amazing things counting 108 strange waterfalls along with the sacrosanct temple.

Jomsom Muktinath Trekking cannot be explained through words as it entices the wonderful entryway to "The Forbidden Kingdom" of that Mustang with the peep of traditional practices. Here, Nepal Glacier Treks have set Jomsom Muktinath Trekking for 13 days as it is suggested that February to June and from September to November is encountered as an apt season. The trek starts and ends from Kathmandu with arrival and departure date. Moreover, Jomsom Muktinath Trekking comes under easy trekking. The nature of trekking along with handling those problems can be developed through this trek. This is a customized trip, the visitor can make own itinerary for that we will help them. The trek leads by experts as well as a friendly trekking guide and other staffs. We focused on higher quality accommodation during the trip on the mountain because your satisfied is our prime aim. We make your Jomsom Muktinath journey memorable and lifetime experience.

Itinerary Details

Day 01 : Arrive at Tribhuvan International Airport in Kathmandu (1345m)

On the first day of itinerary you will land on Tribhuvan International Airport, Kathmandu. At the airport you will be received by the representative staff from Nepal Glacier Treks. From the airport you will be transferred into the hotel. Stay overnight in hotel.

Day 02 : Drive to Pokhara (820m) 6 hours

On the following day taking breakfast will take a drive to Pokhara (820m), taking 6/7 hours. The drive will make its way all through the green lush forest and villages. Taking some break will stop for lunch and then again continue the drive. Arriving at Pokhara you will check into the hotel. Stay overnight in a hotel.

Day 03 : Trek to Tikhedhunga (1,491m) 5 hours

Moving ahead you will take a drive to Naya Pul (42km) via car or taxi. Within an hour you will arrive in Birethanti from where the trek begins formally. You will have your lunch at Ramghai. Then, the trail will take you to Tikhedhunga, the end spot for this day. You will love this trek during your stay at Tikhedhunga. Stay overnight at guesthouse.

Day 04 : Trek to Ghorepani (2850m) 6 hours

The trail goes up a steep stone staircase to the huge Magar village called Ulleri, which is situated at 2,070 meters. Over the village, the trail ascends lightly through pastures and cultivated fields. You can find more glorious and enjoyably rhododendron and oak forests. In the winter the road is covered with snow. Within the hike of an hour, you will arrive at Nangethanti. Over again you will be climbing to Ghorepani positioned at 2,850m. Stay overnight at a guesthouse.

Day 05 : Hike up to Poon Hill (3210m) and Trek to Tatopani (1,180m) 7 hours

Today wake up at 5 o'clock in the early morning and begin hiking for Poon Hill. It takes around an hour to hike from Ghorepani to Poon Hill, is one of the best Himalayan viewpoints of Nepal from where outstanding Himalayan ranges with awesome sunrise views can be seen quite closely. After seeing the wonderful and massif Himalayan views, we return back to the guesthouse in Ghorepani for hot and delicious breakfast and then continue to walk to Tatopani. Tato means "hot" and Pani is "water", a name earned politeness of the hot spring by a river. The Tatopani is very famous short and easy trek just out of Pokhara city. Overnight stay at a guesthouse.

Day 06 : Trek to Ghasa (2,110m) 6 hours

On the very next day, you will move for Ghasa from Tatopani, liking the adjacent surroundings. Ghasa is a fine-looking place where you will come across polite people, with parkland and unlock space. As soon as you arrive at Ghasa it will take away all your sleepiness. Stay overnight at a guesthouse.

Day 07 : Trek to Marpha Ghasa (2,665m) 5- 6 hours

In the next day, you will move from Ghasa to Marpha which is situated at an elevation of (2,665m), after following the Kaligandaki River. You will head all the way through the fine gorge, crossing Thakali traditional settlements. Marpha is the major inhabitants of the mores of the Thakalis. At this time, you will dig up an occasion to recognize more about an ethnic people and their lifestyles. Stay overnight at a guesthouse

Day 08 : Trek to Kagbeni (2,810m) 5 hours

On the following day as per the itinerary, you will be in motion to Kagbeni by continuing march for 3 hours all the way through the bank of the river and reach Ekley Kaligandaki. It is set up on the banks of two rivers. Kagbeni is a trouble-free village thus far it has established itself as an attractive spot for trekking. Stay overnight at guesthouse

Day 09 : Trek to Muktinath (3800) 4 hours

On the following a day you will move to Muktinath (3,800m) the central pilgrimage for Hindu and Buddhists devotees. This is designed with Gompa and Pagoda style. Pagoda style is the one dedicated to Lord Bishnu which is the most appealing and significance place. After hiking for 4 hours will effortlessly take you to Muktinath. Stay overnight at a guesthouse.

Day 10 : Trek to Jomsom (2,713m) 4 hours

The trail rapidly moves downward into the valley above 5,000 feet, below the infertile scenery viewing the dramatic views. You will move to Jomsom from Muktinath in the morning after taking breakfast. Lastly, you will turn up at Jomsom (2,713m), is considered as the central town from the standpoint of a trade route. You will get to buy and experience wine produced by native people. Stay overnight at a guesthouse.

Day 11 : Flight to Pokhara and Kathmandu

Pokhara is the astounding city with the exquisite weather. Pokhara is a prominent spot for the trekkers. It is occupied as natural all along with inspiring legacy sites like caves, lakes, and temples of Hindus and Buddhists. After that, finishing the sightseeing in Pokhara you will take a flight to Kathmandu. Enjoying the scenic flight you will come into Tribhuvan International Airport from where you will be transferred to the hotel. Stay overnight in a hotel.

Day 12 : Final departure

On this day you will be transferred to Tribhuvan International Airport so that you can return your hometown or move to next destinations. Our team representative will take you to an airport with great respect and safely. Have a safe journey.