

Overview

The Koshi Tappu Wildlife Safari, one of the significant tourist destinations of Nepal. The conservation areas in Terai region that lie in the eastern part of Nepal. This place has occupied of 175km² of wetlands around three districts, namely Sunsari, Saptari, and Udayapur. The reserve has named after the biggest river of Nepal, the Koshi. This River has the main impact and the attachment region. It has a vast expanse water stream, which is being the source of livelihood, many animals, and the local people. The blue waters and dense forest on each side, truly amazing and the numerous birds sound on your side entertain your trip. Though, this place considered as the main destination for birding sites in Asia. Many migratory and resident birds feel free to dwell on, so during the month of November to February many explore and stay here. Which usually comes from Siberia and Tibet. Mainly Arna (wild water buffalo) can find most and other like beautiful Bengal Florican, flamboyant Sarus Cranes are the main list of visitors love to search throughout the safari.

The Koshi tappu wildlife camp could be the most interesting option to those visitors, who have traveled Chitwan and Bardia National Park before. You can have the heavenly feelings during your jungle safari because the echoes of sweet sounded birds just spread the magic in the air. Many endangered species like Black-necked Stork, Greater Adjutant, Lesser Adjutant, Baer's Pochard, Red-necked Francolin, and Marsh Warbler is conserving here. As per the record, more than half Nepal's bird seems to habituate in Koshi Tappu. Besides this, the Himalayan peaks, including the Mount Makalu (8,485m), the world's fifth highest mountain is another viewpoint this trip and Sun Koshi rafting for the additional fun lover.

The most appropriate season to step out in Koshi Tappu Jungle Safari is beginning of March to end of May and September to the end December. We have many tour package, suitable as per your choices and your holiday duration. So, if this suit as per your choice among others, then you can book now with no hesitation because we are providing you the best opportunity to gain your personal satisfaction effortlessly. Thus, your satisfaction is our prime goal and positive review as our regards.

Itinerary Details

Day 01 : Arrival in Kathmandu Airport (1345m)

After your arrival to Tribhuvan International airport, you will then catch up our team representative holding our signboard out there. S/he definitely helps you to transfer in the hotel through our private vehicle and your overnight stay at a hotel in Kathmandu.

Day 02 : Flight from Kathmandu to Biratnagar Airport and drive to Koshi Tappu wildlife camp.

The second day of the trip is about heading towards to your destination to Biratnagar from Kathmandu by air. Then after, the destination will be set to Koshi Tappu Wildlife camp. You can fill up your hunger and can have a glance of a beautiful environment surrounded on your side with numerous birds.

Day 03 : Exploring Koshi Tappu wildlife.

This day you can wake up early to go for the morning refreshment nearby vicinity. You can have breakfast and move towards to Sapta Koshi River for rafting. The beautiful view and the water flows made by the rafting attract you more. The water birds like water buffalo, dolphins and other water habitats can be seen there. After a short drive to Koshi barrage for sightseeing, you will return back to camp. You will be providing the right timing for your lunch and the dinner during the trip.

Day 04 : Again exploring to Koshi Tappu wildlife.

Waking up early can benefits you for the morning refreshment through walking around vicinity side. The area of pink tower crossing the Koshi barrage, the birds over the Koshi river side are truly amazing for sightseeing activity after having breakfast. The whole day you will get lots of opportunities to entertain yourself through tasting the different variety available with this trip.

Day 05 : Return back to Kathmandu from Biratnagar airport.

You will have the final trip to the jungle for collecting more fun. You will get chances to store in your precious moment for the lifetime memory. Then you will move towards to Kathmandu from Biratnagar airport after having your morning breakfast.

Day 06 : Final Departure

As we have a provision for dropping to guest at the Kathmandu's airport for the final departure they made from Kathmandu.